

CATHEDRAL HONORED BY THE ISB

It is still not too late to purchase a ticket for the Interfaith Service Bureau annual banquet this Wednesday, May 16, at the Grand, 1215 J Street. The Cathedral parish is being honored for its interfaith involvement in the community at the banquet.

Twice since the 9/11 terrorist attack on the United States, the Cathedral has been the site of interfaith services, and during restoration of the Cathedral the parish shared space with Westminster Presbyterian Church. The ornate cover on the main altar in the Cathedral during the Easter season was donated by Westminster.

The Interfaith Service Bureau is the principal interfaith organization in Sacramento and fulfills the same role as the National Council of Churches in other cities.

Other communities being honored: the Salam Moslem Community and the Sikh Temple. Mayor Heather Fargo is also being honored. The keynote speaker that night is Marc Friedman, executive director of the Sacramento Philharmonic Orchestra. Ticket are $100 each. If you would like to attend this event please call the Cathedral rectory at (916) 444-3071. Cathedral parishioners will sit together.
