

Civic Leader

At the time the Cathedral was built, Sacramento was booming with growth. There were some people who were key “movers and shakers” as Sacramento grew. They were the civic leaders of the time and we still feel their influences today. Who were they? What were their stories?

Research the three colorful and interesting people listed below and be ready to share what you learned about them with your group. Look for any influences they may have had on the building of the Cathedral as your walk quietly throughout.

Mrs. Jane Stanford, wife of Governor Leland Stanford

- Fact:
- Fact:
- Fact:
- Fact:
- Fact:
- Quote:

Anthony Coolot

- Fact:
- Fact:
- Fact:
- Quote about him:

- Anything in the Cathedral that is connected to him?

Mrs. Margaret Crocker, wife of Edwin Crocker

- Fact:
- Fact:
- Fact:
- Quote:

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dwyer

- Fact
- Fact
- Anything in the cathedral that is connected to them?
- Quote about them:

The Fair Women

Theresa Fair was married to _____ who built the _____ Hotel in San Francisco. She was a close friend of Bishop Manogue. Mrs. Fair donated money to build the _____ that used to be located to the east of the Cathedral.

Her daughters were Birdie and Tessie Fair and they donated _____ and _____ windows to the Cathedral.

Why do you think all these people were so interested in helping build a beautiful cathedral for Sacramento? Be ready to give your ideas to your group.