Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament

June 10 2018 * 10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Pastor's Corner

The anniversary of the dedication of our Cathedral is quickly approaching. This year we celebrate the anniversary on Sunday, July 1. That same day is the anniversary of my beginning as rector of the Cathedral. I admit that my appreciation of the building, our Cathedral, has greatly increased over the six years I have been residing here.

I remember when I first arrived, thinking I'm not really a "cathedral" person, I felt the need to help people see clearly that our building, the Cathedral, is not the church. We, the people gathered in worship, are the Church. My concern was that we can become too fixated on the care of a building, too proud of its beauty and significance, and lose sight of the true nature of the Church, the people. We must always reflect the presence of Christ more gloriously than any structure in which we worship.

Although I still believe this is an important message, and one we will always be inspired to live up to, I do realize how powerful our Cathedral's presence has been over the 129 years she has existed in Sacramento. When she was first built, she certainly was an impressive and awe-inspiring structure. Throughout the years following, she has continued to inspire people, encouraging them to reflect on God and His Church. Thousands of people, simply by walking passed or entering her doors, have returned to the church, began their inquiry into knowing Jesus, or knew this would be where they would get married or baptize their children. The Cathedral, as the Mother Church for our diocese, has called and welcomed people from many diverse cultures and faith traditions, leading them all closer to our Creator.

Our Cathedral has witnessed the lives of millions of God's children. Although I still know that she is not a living being and will not enter the kingdom of heaven, I find myself jealous that she will always be a more effective preacher than I am. She will always command more attention and sometimes even lead people astray from our humble Teacher's message. I've learned that we are a lot more alike than I ever suspected. After a paltry six years getting to know her better, I hear her message of the glory of God's kingdom loud and clear. And I admit, at night, when it's time to shut her doors, I feel her gentle embrace as she and I, and all of the dedicated people who minister in her shadows, take time to rest after a long day of preaching the gospel.

Happy anniversary.

From the Editor

The new history pages on the cathedral website are "finished." There is so much and yet, I feel I've only scratched the surface. I will continue to add to the timeline I created as my research continues. I encourage you to have a look on cathedralsacramento.org. It's great fun.

In addition to the new website pages, every second Sunday of the coming months, the bulletin will feature an article about the cathedral's history, leading up to next year's 130th Anniversary.

While we certainly don't have the comparative longevity of the churches on the east coast or in Europe, we do have a rich and wonderful history here in our beautiful cathedral. The more you read about it, the more you get a sense of the love and dedication generations have had for this unique House of Worship and Sacramento landmark. The Cathedral was built just as this city was moving from a muddy mining town into a capitol metropolis, and it remains a witness over the constantly changing city around it. The Cathedral's inception was ambitious, its future sometimes doubtful, but its importance to the growth of the Sacramento community never deniable.

The Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament was, and is, here to call the Faithful, the Curious, and the Coming Home. A bit dwarfed now by adjacent high-rise buildings, it remains a grand testament to the fortitude of our pioneer ancestors and the faith of the countless thousands that have come here every year—for 129 years and counting.

Yours in Christ,

~Lyssa~

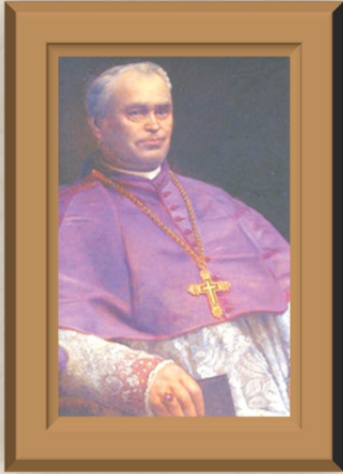

[Sacramentans]...referred to the Catholic temple merely as "the cathedral" - a sobriquet of affection and an acknowledgment that the structure was an integral part of the fabric of city life."

THE BISHOP BUILDS HIS CATHEDRAL

By Eleanor Doyle

Cholera epidemics, the scourge of the last century, proved the common denominator in linking this first bishop of Sacramento, Patrick Manogue, and the first Mass celebrated in this city, Father Peter Augustine Anderson, OP.

For the Dominican priest, it proved an ending, but for young Pat Manogue, then a seminarian, it was the road to the west, the gold mines, the priesthood, and ultimately to his role of spiritual shepherd.

Father Anderson died in November, 1850, from the effects of administering to the victims of cholera in Sacramento several months after celebrating the first Holy Sacrifice here. Bishop Manogue early in his life had to forfeit continuing seminary studies near Chicago because of the dread epidemic which forced the school to close. It was then that he journeyed to the historic Mother Lode, where with pick and drill he chipped out gold from the rich veins of ore.

On St Patrick's Day, March 17, 1884, he had automatically succeeded Bishop Eugene O'Connell whom he served as coadjutor, as leader of the Grass Valley Diocese. The Holy See was immediately besieged with persuasive letters from Bishop Manogue requesting a change of name for the diocese. Once Rome had given the green light to the establishment of the Diocese of Sacramento, changing both the name and see city from Grass Valley, the bishop immediately set about to obtain property for a cathedral. Due to his penchant for keeping a minimum of files, there is no actual record of what steps he took to obtain a half block of property, bounded on three sides by 11th, 12th and K Streets.

However, because Manogue was a rugged individualist, it is likely that such a business dealing was already under consideration by the time definite word arrived that Pope Leo XIII had signed a Papal Bull, dated May 28, 1886, which instituted the Diocese of Sacramento.

That the prelate was a man of vision is exemplified in his choice of a site, bordered by unpaved streets many blocks away from the center of the business district. He purchased the property for $40,811. Less than 40 years later, one of his successors, Bishop Patrick J. Keane, sold a portion of the property, the corner of 12th and K Street as far as the alley, to the Ware family for $125,000.

Apparently, as a man of vigor and action, Bishop Manogue attracted men of similar attributes to assist him with the planning of a cathedral which would bear the name of the capital city.

In this present age of large structures which are commonplace, it must be remembered that when Bryan J. Clinch of San Francisco, architect, designed the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament, it was to represent the largest Catholic Church west of the Mississippi. Yet, in spite of its dimensions and the detail that had to be followed to assure its standing centuries later, the cornerstone was laid the following year, on June 12, 1887.

Into the cornerstone was placed a document, written by hand by Bishop Manogue which read:

"This chief or cornerstone of the Cathedral in this city of Sacramento, dedicated to the Most Holy Sacrament for the greater glory of God, was consecrated and laid on the 12th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1887, by Right Rev. Patrick Manogue, Bishop of the Diocese of Sacramento, Leo XIII being reigning Pope and ruler of the Church of God; Grover Cleveland, President of the United States; Washington Bartlett, Governor of the State of California; Eugene Julius Gregory, Mayor of the city of Sacramento; Rev. J.M.C. Bouchard, of the Society of Jesus, preached on the occasion; Bryan Clinch, architect: J. Glynn, J. McGuire, A. McElroy, Messrs. Chatain & Gilette, builders of the sacred edifice; the great seal of the State of California, with the names of all the State officers; the Monitor, Sacramento Record - Union, Daily Bee, Sunday Leader and the Evening Star; the San Francisco daily papers; the New York Freeman's Journal; six rare coins presented by Cashier Miller of D.O. Mills National Bank, are deposited in the cornerstone."

That evening, Bishop Manogue entertained a group of clerical and lay leaders at a banquet in his residence which had already been built at the corner of 12th and K Streets. It was an imposing mansion, four stories high, and the funds for it had been given by Mrs. Theresa Fair, a close friend of the prelate. Some years earlier, when she obtained a divorce from James G. Fair, it was the personal support and intervention of Bishop Manogue that assured her of a tremendous financial settlement from the Bonanza King.

Tessie Fair never forgot this kindness and throughout her life she remained one of the Bishop's most devoted and generous benefactors. Proof of her devotion was the rectory and its furnishings, as well as her donations for the building of the cathedral.

That same year, 1887, the property of Sacramento's Catholic Church, St Rose at 7th and K Streets, had been sold to the United States government for a new post office. Until the Cathedral would be completed in 1889, Mass was offered in an abandoned building on 12th Street, adjacent to the rectory. The night of Bishop Manogue's banquet he explained that when St. Rose Church was razed, there had been much consternation because no one was able to locate the cornerstone. In earlier years, a slough passed along 7th Street and for a time there was a wooden foot bridge leading directly to the church entrance. The Bishop concluded that since the land was once marshy, it was possible that the cornerstone had sunk out of sight.

The closest he ever came to conducting a fund drive for the construction of the Cathedral, which cost $250,000, was the day of the cornerstone laying. On that occasion tables had been set and boxes placed out where persons could make contributions to the building fund. Signs were erected noting that anyone who gave $5 or more would have his name recorded and announced later from the altar.

Old timers in Sacramento, whose families date back to the Manogue era, recall his chief disappointment while Bishop of Sacramento, was the lack of response from the laity towards helping build the Cathedral. He often commented upon the lack of financial support. However, it was an open secret in those times that he was being given sufficient help from the Bonanza Kings of the Comstock, and there was not an actual need for their contributions.

Bishop Manogue never verified or denied this assumption.

The MISSIONARY COOPERATIVE APPEAL is an annual program in which missionaries from around the world speak at each parish. The goal of this appeal is to increase awareness of missionary work and to raise funds to help missionary organizations continue their evangelization efforts. In the Diocese of Sacramento, 50 different missions were selected this year to each speak at two parishes. Last year through generous donations, we collected $392,880 for 51 missions.

Next weekend, June 16-17, our parish will be visited by Father M.S. Selva Raj with the Diocese of Kumbakonam. He will share with us their courageous evangelization efforts on behalf of the Catholic Church and give us an opportunity to support their work in the field. A second collection will be taken up following their presentation. Special envelopes will be provided for your convenience. Donations made by check should be made payable to the parish. All funds collected throughout the Diocese will be equally divided among the 50 missionary organizations visiting the Diocese of Sacramento this year. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

The Cathedral's Rosary Club will host a 33 DAYS TO MORNING GLORY GROUP RETREAT which consists of Reading, Pondering, and Meeting starting Wednesday, July 11, 2018 and concluding on Wednesday, August 15, 2018 at the 5:10 pm Mass with Consecration. We will meet every Wednesday during this time. The retreat meetings will take the place of the regular Rosary Club meetings held on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of the month. We invite all (including non-Catholics) to participate in this sacred opportunity at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament. "Once you make the consecration, it is for life." If you have any questions and/or need more information, please contact Lolita at Lolita.Urrutia@gmail.com or via voice/text message at (916) 213-5862. Buy the book and contact Lolita no later than Friday, July 6, 2018 if you are interested in participating.

10th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SAVE THE DATE: Red Mass this year is on Tuesday, October 9, at 5:15pm at the Cathedral, followed by the Annual Bench and Bar Award Dinner at the Sutter Club. Bishop Soto will present the St. Thomas More Award. More information to follow.

Sharing the Gospel

Good doctors are smart and helpful. They use medicines to make us well. Jesus was the best doctor that ever lived, but he didn't need medicines. Jesus used the power of the Holy Spirit. He forgave sins, healed broken bones, and cured diseases. Jesus even got rid of demons. No doctor had ever done that before! If you need healing, ask Jesus.

Prayer - Holy Spirit, thank you for helping and healing people through Jesus.

Mission for the Week - Write a thank you note to your doctor. Then say a thank you prayer to Jesus, the best doctor ever.

Esquina del Pastor

El aniversario de la dedicación de nuestra Catedral se acerca rápidamente. Este año celebramos el aniversario el domingo 1 de julio. Ese mismo día es el aniversario de mi comienzo como el párroco de la Catedral. Reconozco que mi aprecio por el edificio, nuestra Catedral, ha aumentado enormemente en los seis años que he estado viviendo aquí.

Recuerdo que cuando llegué, pensando que no soy realmente una persona de la "catedral", sentí la necesidad de ayudar a la gente a ver claramente que nuestro edificio, la Catedral, no es la iglesia. Nosotros, las personas reunidas en el culto, somos la Iglesia. Mi preocupación era que pudiéramos fijarnos demasiado en el cuidado de un edificio, demasiado orgullosos de su belleza y significado, y perder de vista la verdadera naturaleza de la Iglesia, la gente. Siempre debemos reflejar la presencia de Cristo más gloriosamente que cualquier estructura en la que adoremos.

Aunque sigo creyendo que este es un mensaje importante, y que siempre nos inspirará para estar a la altura, me doy cuenta de que tan poderosa ha sido la presencia de nuestra Catedral durante los 129 años que ha vivido en Sacramento. Cuando se construyó por primera vez, ciertamente era una estructura impresionante. A lo largo de los años siguientes, ella ha seguido inspirando a las personas, animándolas a reflexionar sobre Dios y su Iglesia. Miles de personas, simplemente caminando o entrando por sus puertas, han regresado a la iglesia, comenzaron su investigación para conocer a Jesús, o sabían que allí sería donde se casarían o bautizarían a sus hijos. La Catedral, como la Iglesia Madre de nuestra diócesis, ha llamado y dado la bienvenida a personas de muchas culturas diversas y tradiciones de fe, acercándolos más a nuestro Creador.

Nuestra Catedral ha sido testigo de las vidas de millones de hijos de Dios. Aunque todavía sé que ella no es un ser vivo y no va a entrar en el reino de los cielos, me siento celoso de que ella siempre será un predicador más eficaz que yo. Ella siempre llamará más la atención y, a veces incluso alejar a las personas de nuestro humilde mensaje de Maestros. Aprendí que somos mucho más parecidos de lo que jamás sospeché. Después de unos miserables seis años conociéndola mejor, escuché alto y claro su mensaje de la gloria del reino de Dios. Y admito que, por la noche, cuando es hora de cerrar sus puertas, siento su gentil abrazo mientras ella y yo, y todas las personas dedicadas que ministran en sus sombras, se toman un tiempo para descansar después de un largo día predicando el evangelio.

Feliz aniversario.

~Padre Michael~

Las nuevas páginas de historia en el sitio web de la catedral están "terminadas". Hay tanto, y sin embargo, siento que solo he arañado la superficie. Continuaré agregando a la línea de tiempo que creé mientras mi investigación continúa. Te animo a que visites cathedralsacramento.org. Es divertido.

Además de las nuevas páginas web, cada segundo domingo de los próximos meses, el boletín incluirá un artículo sobre la historia de la catedral, que conducirá al 130 aniversario del próximo año.

Aunque ciertamente no tenemos la longevidad comparativa de las iglesias en la costa este o en Europa, sí tenemos una historia rica y maravillosa aquí en nuestra hermosa catedral. Cuanto más lees al respecto, más entiendes el amor y la dedicación que las generaciones han tenido por este lugar único en la Casa de Adoración y la marca de Sacramento. La Catedral fue construida justo cuando esta ciudad se estaba moviendo de un pueblo minero fangoso a una metrópoli capital, y continúa siendo un testigo de la ciudad en constante cambio a su alrededor. El comienzo de la Catedral fue ambicioso, su futuro a veces dudoso, pero su importancia para el crecimiento de la comunidad de Sacramento nunca es negable.

La Catedral del Santísimo Sacramento fue, y es, aquí para llamar a los Fieles, los Curiosos y el Retorno. Un poco empequeñecido ahora por edificios adyacentes de gran altura, sigue siendo un gran testimonio de la fortaleza de nuestros antepasados pioneros y la fe de los incontables miles que han venido aquí cada año, durante 129 años y contando.

Tuyo en Cristo,
~ Lyssa ~

[Sacramentans]... se refería al templo católico simplemente como "la catedral", un sobrenombre de afecto y un reconocimiento de que la estructura era una parte integral del tejido de la vida en la ciudad".

NOTICIAS PARROQUIALES

La Apelación de Cooperación para las Misiones es un programa anual en el cual misioneros de todo el mundo hablan en cada parroquia. El objetivo de esta apelación es para aumentar el conocimiento del trabajo de misioneros y para recaudar fondos para ayudar a las organizaciones misioneras en su esfuerzo de evangelización. En la Diócesis de Sacramento, 50 diferentes misiones fueron seleccionadas este año para que cada una hable en dos parroquias. El año pasado a través de donaciones generosas, recolectamos $392,880 para 51 misiones.

El próximo fin de semana, nuestra parroquia será visitada por Father M.S. Selva Raj con Diócesis de Kumbakonam. Él compartirá con nosotros sus esfuerzos de evangelizar en nombre de la Iglesia Católica y nos dará la oportunidad de dar apoyo a su trabajo en el campo. Habrá una segunda colecta después de su presentación. Se proporcionarán sobres especiales para su conveniencia. Donaciones hechas por medio de cheque deben hacerse a nombre de la parroquia. Todos los fondos recaudados en la Diócesis se dividirán igualmente entre las 50 organizaciones misioneras que visitan la Diócesis de Sacramento este año. Gracias de antemano por su generosidad.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO

En los tiempos de Jesús, y en el nuestro, existe la tendencia a la oposición de la misericordia de Dios por medio de su Hijo, a causa de la existencia del pecado. Nuestra actitud debe tener un carácter de lucha urgente contra el mal que nos abruma y, aunque parece que estamos rodeados de maldad, la confianza y la esperanza en Cristo que ha vencido el mal debe ser más fuerte para el que tiene fe. En las lecturas vemos cómo algunas personas critican a Jesús. Sus parientes lo llamaban loco, los maestros de la ley decían que estaba poseído por Belcebú. La paciencia de Jesús ante estos comentarios es admirable. Pide a sus seguidores que se acerquen y comienza a cuestionarlos con la siguiente pregunta: "¿Cómo puede Satanás echar a Satanás? Si una nación está dividida en bandos, no puede durar. Tampoco una familia dividida puede mantenerse (Mc. 3:24-26).

¿Qué mensaje nos quiere dar Dios en las lecturas de este domingo? ¿Cómo confrontamos el mal que nos rodea? Seguramente, no se trata solo de escuchar y salir de la Eucaristía diciendo: "qué bonito habló el padre". Se trata de comprender y actuar conforme al mensaje. Sabemos que la sociedad muchas veces es ciega para distinguir el bien del mal. Ya no existe la conciencia del pecado; todo lo vemos normal. Especialmente, quitar la vida al ser humano, como lo vemos en las noticias de todos los días. Jesús ofrece libranos del mal, y debemos aprovechar sus enseñanzas para vivir de acuerdo con la verdadera familia de Jesús, es decir, los que acogen su palabra y la ponen en práctica.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Un reino dividido contra sí mismo no puede subsistir. ¿Está dividido el reino de tu alma? A menudo nos enfrentamos a decisiones que parecen ser buenas, pero que en realidad no lo son. Nos cuesta elegir el bien sobre el mal y lo bueno de lo malo. A menudo tenemos conflictos internos y caminamos por la vida con un corazón dividido. Sabemos lo que debemos hacer para vivir con Dios, pero hacemos exactamente lo contrario. Cuando nos reunimos con nuestros hermanos y hermanas y buscamos el don de Dios en la Eucaristía, no solo nos unimos unos con otros en la fe; sino que también nos unimos con Dios en nuestro ser. Todos los conflictos y las divisiones cesan y actuamos con un corazón centrado, fuerte y decidido.
